Antiquity’s New Groove / Nowe szaty Antyku

In my presentation, I will attempt to summarize the discussion around the reception studies in works for children and young adults. I will analyze the scholarly works, as well as fiction for young people that correspond to the idea of the classical antiquity. The main texts appearing in the presentation would be Polish, in order to present the situation of "mythical books" on the Polish ground.

This Project has received funding from the European Research Council (ERC) under the European Union’s Horizon 2020 Research and Innovation Programme under grant agreement No 681202, *Our Mythical Childhood...
